

WRITERS' RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Tuesday, March 13, 2018 | 5 – 7 PM

Gratz Center, Room 4F at 126 E. Chestnut Street, Chicago, Illinois

Presented by:

Independent Writers of Chicago

LAWYERS for the
CREATIVE ARTS®

Freelance writers face legal and business issues that can interrupt work flow and lead to delays and unexpected costs to resolve. Be proactive and learn what you can do to:

- Write and negotiate better contract terms
- Clarify ownership and usage rights to your content
- Get permission for existing work, including images
- Protect your trademark
- Avoid defamation and privacy claims
- Post responsibly in social media + more!

Come network with IWOC members and our speaker, Marci Rolnik Walker, Legal Director of Lawyers for the Creative Arts, who will present current information on pressing legal questions that impact the publishing industry.

Doors open at 5 for networking, lights snacks and refreshments.

Program at 6 PM. Join us afterwards at Tempo Café, mere steps from the Gratz Center.

Free for IWOC members | Non-members pay $10 online or $15 at the door.
